NUMEROUS APPLICATIONS TO THE LOCAL AUTHORITIES FOR RELIEF.

Poorer Class of Workingmen-A Strong Desire to Emigrate to America-The Ukase Believed to Be a Political Move.

that the Russian ukase was directed against Germany, but the Government now appears to be convinced that the ukase was prompted but the failure of the German corps this year makes the situation more serious. The latest statistics, however, leave ground hess of her military arrangements and readness to meet all emergencies, characteristic of Germany, will prevent difficulty with the rmy. Reports of a rise of rye in Holland caused a further rise of 1 mark here to-day, and toward the close a calmer spirit prevalled and the price receded 2 marks. Wheat advanced 342 marks on unfavorable reports from New York.

financial sacrifices entailed, the fall of rouble potes and the damage which the measure will cause to farming interests.

GLOOMT NEWS.

The news from Eastern Prussia is of the cloomiest character. The people there have just become generally aware of the Russia prohibition of the export of rye, and they regard it almost as a death sentence. Those near the frontier have been depending of late on rye purchased in small quantities across the boundary in Russia. The Russian across the boundary in Russia. The Russian officials now refuse to let even a pound of grain go over the line, and have threatened with imprisonment any person caught selling or any German found on Russian soil with grain purchased there. The scenes described are heart-rending and numerous applications have been made to the local authorities for relief. These applications are fast consuming the money devoted to the sustenance of the poor, and there is some talk of petitioning the Prussian Government to issue army rations to the distressed. It is believed that Chancellor Caprivi will adopt this course rather than repeal the corn duties.

In the manufacturing centers of Germany In the manufacturing centers of Germany, especially Chemnitz, Plavin and Greiz, the distress of the people is increasing, duliness of trade being combined with the high price of provisions. Rye bread is the staple of the poorer class of workingmen and their families and any increase of the already high price would mean starvation to many. There is a strong desire in the manufacturing districts to emigrate to America, but few of the people are sufficiently ahead in money to do so, Among the peasantry, says a correspondent writing from Silesia, the general feeling is that of a pathetic despair. Prevalent distress in Germany reacts on the Jewish refugees, and everywhere along the border they are being turned back unless absolutely equipped with funds to take care of themselves. The majority of the refugees are without money and, therefore, are not permitted to enter Germany. permitted to enter Germany.

RELIEF MEASURES IN RUSSIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 13.—Relief measures for the distressed provinces are being rapidly pushed. Committees are advancing money to small farmers to provide food and seed.

AGAINST GERMANY AND AUSTRIA.

THE RUSSIAN UKASE DECLARED TO BE

LONDON, Aug. 18.—The Times correspondent at St. Petersburg says: "In certain well informed circles here it is maintained that he harvests are in no way as bad as preended. The rye crop is not small enough warrant the prohibition. The ukase is ather considered a political move against armany and Austria."

A CHANGE OF TUNE. There has been a sudden change in the une of the certain German papers towards be United States since the Russian prohibition of corn exportation. The writers now enerally look to the United States for relief, of only for the present, but in the future, but it is confidently anticipated that the upply will offset the poor harvest and present the prolonged distress.

INTERNATIONAL STOCKS DEPRESSED. INTERNATIONAL STOCKS DEFRESSED.

International stocks generally are depressed by the Mophurago failure at Trieste and the stoppage of Russian rye exports. Some fears are expressed that short crops will cause domestic discontent in Russia, which will lead to a counteracting policy of foreign aggression. Cereals are firmer in Liverpool. Maise is expected to further advance, being in demand as a substitute for rye on the Continent.

The Russian ukase caused a hardening of the prices of cereals in Liverpool. Rye is not much dealt in in England as compared with the business in that commodity on the Conti-nent, but its absence causes Indian maise to be in request and for that Liverpool is one of the chief markets, hence a further advance in maize is expected.

Serious Defects Discovered in the Buildings Now Constructing.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 18.—Work on the World's Fair buildings has stopped, owing to errors in calculating the strain to which several of the buildings will be subjected, which how necessitate the strengthening of nearly all the foundations. Chief of Construction Burnham with a large force of experts, has been figuring on the problem and the discovery of the grave errors has led to Chief Engineer Gottlieb's resignation. Chief Burnham states that work on some of the buildings will be resumed to-morrow. Director-General Davis yesterday evening nominated J.M. Samuels of Kentucky for Chief of the Hor-

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 18.—"Ed" Pardridge, the plunger, settled his affairs with the Board of Trade to-day, and his enormous nore, is now a thing of the past. His chec for more than $100,000, the largest that ha passed the clearing house for many day, was paid in before 10 o'clock this morning. It is quite possible that with the speculator's settlement the Board of Trade has seen the last of him, but he does not authorize this statement. He simply does not know whether he will ever trade again or not.

"Financially I am all right," said Mr. Pardridge. "Otherwise I am—well, I got beat, but it was not by the market. Somebody is behind this thing, but they won't catch me that way again. No, I never said I would quit trading. What I did say was that I had played the limit—plunged, I guess they called it—and I did not intend to play that way any more. And that's the truth. I won't let'em get me again."

Mr. Pardridge said he was still possessed of an income of $180,000 a year from what remained of his fortune.

A ROYAL SEND-OFF.

ENTHUSIASTIC OVATIONS TO THE GRAND DUKE ALEXIS BY THE PARISIANS.

PARIS, Aug. 13.—The Grand Duke Alexis has left this city for Vichy. The enthusiasm evoked by the visit of the brother of the Czar has lost none of its force by the personal contact of the Parisians with the tall, fine-looking Russian admiral, and upon every occasion when he has shown himself to the public he has received greetings that have amounted to ovations. The time appointed for his departure for Vichy had been announced in the newspapers, and consequently large crowds gathered along the route from the hotel at which he was stopping to the railway station. As the carriage in which the Grand Duke was riding passed along the streets, the crowds cheered him enthusiastically, and as he smillingly bowed in response to the hearty greetings tendered him, the crowd broke out into cries of "Vive la Russie et la France," and "Vive le Czar."

While the enthusiasm was at its height, a sudden break was made in the long line of people extending along the sidewalks, and while the chimism was it is depict, a sudden break was made in the long line of people extending along the sidewalks, and as the Grand Duke's carriage reached the point of the confusion, an old man, bent and decrepit, with his gray hair hanging in confusion over his withered face, his very appearance denoting that he was a native of the land ruled over by the "White Czar," sprang to the side of the carriage and, raising his hat and bowing low, threw into the lap of the Grand Duke a petition, which it was afterwards learned was a request for the redress of some grievance from which the aged Russian was suffering. The right of presenting petitions in this manner is one of the few rights possessed by Russian subjects, and the flocument was taken possession of by the Grand Duke, When the Grand Duke reached the railway station there was repetition of the scenes of enthusiasm witnessed reached the railway station there was repeti-tion of the scenes of enthusiasm witnessed along the streets through which he had just passed, and as the train which he took drew out of the station, the last sounds of Paris that the Grand Duke heard were the patri-otic cries from the lips of the thousands of persons who had gathered to bid him adieu.

BRITISH TOPICS.

PROGRAMME FOR THE RECEPTION OF THE BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 13.—This city was visited by a decidedly animated electrical storm yesterday. At noon a furious wind and rainstorm swept over the city and this was accompanied by the sharpest-flashes of lightning. A boil struck the wires running into the City Hall dome and tore the big clock all to pieces. A clock maker and two boys were at work repairing it when the catended by Her Majesty. On the 21st the lotter's house. The little girl was fatally burned. Queen will review the French fleet, which will then leave for Portsmouth with a British naval escort of honor. He expressed his gratification at the fine showing made by the naval apprentices.

INFLUX OF FOREIGNERS.

Much has been said recently concerning the great number of foreigners who are alleged to be arriving in England, it being held by many that the reported influx was due to the exodus of Jews from Russia. An official report issued to day on the immigration during the month of July shows that the number of foreigners entering England during that month amounted to 9,000.

THE REPUBLIC DISASTER

Thirteen Excursionists Killed By the Col-Thirteen Excursionists Killed By the Collapsed Deck of a Boat.

New York, Aug. 13.—An excursion was given yesterday by the Brooklyn dry-goods house of Theodore Keyser, for the benefit of about 400 employes. The excursion steamer Crystal Stream was engaged for the occasion and started down to Cold Spring Grove in the morning. The day was spent there in a happy way by the excursionists and a start made for home about 4 o'clock. The barge Republic was alongside the steamer with more than half the crowd on it. Just as they started a storm came up and the wind blew at a terrific rate. The upper deck of the barge, to which an awning had been attached, became loosened and in a moment more was down on the panic stricken crowd. The scene was a wild one, women and children yelled and screamed, and a number of people jumped into the water to escape being crushed. Thirteen people were killed outright and thirty or forty more seriously injured. The excursionists who escaped were taken to Oyster Bay and sent home by train, and a little later the steamer came along with the thirteen bodies and about a dozen persons so badly injured that they were unable to move.

The list of the dead and wounded is as follows: lapsed Deck of a Boat.

Mrs. Kate Faller, aged 40, of No. 70 Boerum street; Kate Faller, aged 6, daughter of Mrs. Faller; Otto Faller, aged 18 months, son of Mrs. Faller; Miss Coonie Goetz, aged 18, No. 174 Ewen street; Robert Sinler, pilot of the barge; Kate Kantz, aged 4, No. 193 Graham avenue; Lizzle Schenborn, aged 9, 192 Graham avenue; Mrs. Pauline Prinz, aged 25, 10 Briggs street; Mrs. Anton Laberfink, aged 26, 176 Graham avenue; Henry Hoffman, address unknown; Henry Randall of Grand and Ninth streets: Hannah Holler, aged 20, No. 140 KILLED. streets; Hannah Holler, aged 20, No. 140 Boerum street; Mrs. Chas. 16 Granton street, Brooklyn, leg broken; and many others.

The dead and many of the injured were brought to this city on the steamer Crystal stream. A special train took the rest of the injured, and the excursionists who had fortunately escaped unburt arrived at an early hour this morning. The injured were all taken to their homes. They numbered about forty as nearly as could be learned at the time, and all were more or less seriously hurt. Aaron Holler, brother of Hannah Holler, who was killed, was the most severely hurt. It is thought he will die.

WRECK ON THE PANHANDLE. COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 13.—A disastrous freight wreck occurred this morning on the Cincinnati division of the Panhandle, just west of the city. The train broke in two and ran together again, piling up eighteen cars. John Noll, a horse-trainer, was seriously injured, and the horse, valued at $1,500 and owned in Steubenville, was killed. The cars were loaded with low-class merchandise and the loss is estimated at $10,000.

The two children of Albert White, living at Moulton, Io., went out to pick berries and were chased by a pair of wolves. A neighboring farmer saved the children by shooting one of the beasts.

An unknown man was found in a horribly mangled condition on the railroad track at Mound Junction, near Cairo, Ill. From a slip of paper found on his clothing the inference is drawn that he was from St. Louis or Chicago.

Ed Hoover, a boy of 15, went to Oswego, Kan., from his father's farm to see the circus. Last night he went to bathe in the Neosho River with some acquaintances and was drowned while trying to see how far he could dive.

MRS. WICKLINE OF BOLTON TOWNSHIP, KAN., RECEIVES A THREATENING LETTER.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Aug. 13.—Three months ago Mrs. J. A. Wickline of Bolton Township was assaulted and nearly murdered. Last week her husband went to visit relatives in Illinois and yesterday she received word that he is dying. This morning she found nailed to her door a letter written in red ink with skull and crossbones over it, warning her to leave the country forever, or she should fill a coffin before the week is out. This is in the same neighborhood where Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Donnelly were mysteriously murdered a week ago. The people are greatly excited. In the case of the Donnellys the Coroner's jury returned a verdict to the effect that Donnelly had killed his wife and then committed suicide. Notwithstanding, it was generally believed that both of them were the victims of a brutal murder.

than it was conducted during the first few days after the escape of the criminal. Norris, the famous detective, is now on the ground gathering clues to the trail of the murderer. Norris feels sure that the man is Bill Murray, the natorious desperado who robbed a bank in Michigan a few years ago. It is now known that the robber had a confederate, who hung about Columbus Grove for a day or two preceding the tragedy, and when the desperate man entered the bank one of the fellows was seated partially concealed in a wing just in front of and out of the view of the cashier, so that he could witness all that was going on

The presence of a second man at the crime was not known until to-day, and it adds more mystery to the affair and indicates that the robbery was both deliberate and planned, and was carried through to a successful termination by the men who were the originators of the raid.

THE MEN WHO ABDUCTED MILLE PERRIEN AT DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 13.—The detectives raided a bad gang of criminals yesterday and locked them up, charged with the Perrien abduction. The arrest recalls the celebrated abduction case which occurred last March. Mr. Perrien, who is one of the wealthiest millers of the Northwest, was led into a trap by a gang of crooks on that occasion and held by a gang of crooks on that occasion and held for twenty-four hours for ransom. The abductors released him after they had held him twenty-four hours. The gang taken in charge by the detectives is known as the Considine crowd and includes Johnnie and Billy Considine, Thomas Kennedy, Frank Griffith, James McDowell and Edward Kent. The officers are satisfied that they are the parties who abducted Mr. Perrien.

THE GEORGIA SENATORSHIP.

MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE CRARGED WITH SELLING THEIR VOTES. ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 13.—There was a great sensation in the House yesterday morning at the meeting of the Legislature when Mr. Oattis of Muscogee presented a resolution asking that the subject of selling votes be looked into. Mr. Oattis' resolution read:
Whereas, Charges are being circulated over the State that during the race for United States. Seastor, at the fall term of the General Assembly, as many as eight members of the Legislature offered their votes for sale; and.

Rasolved, further, that said committee be authorized to send for persons and papers and administer caths to witnesses.

This resolution is the result of a rumor to the effect that Hon. L. F. Livingston had stated that during the race for Senator not less than eight members had approached him on the subject of selling their votes, and that one was willing to take $400. The resolution is expected to force Mr. Livingston into proving the assertion.

Last night a meeting of the directors of the North St. Louis Improvement Association was held at the residence of Louis Furz, No. 1408 East Grand avenue, at which the welfare of the North End was discussed at some length and the subject of the nuisances in the neighborhood of Prairie avenue and Hall street given particular attention. The directors present at the meeting were, Louis Furz, President; Harry A. Smith, Secretary; Bobt. McCulloch, Frederick Schwartz, Dr. Wm. Burton, Dr. Wm. C. Richardson, George Hilkes, Henry C. Moore and Isaac H. Sturgeon.

Hilkes, Henry C. Moore and Isaac H. Sturgeon.

It was reported by one of the gentlemen present that some of the city officials were trying to make arrangements which, while not removing the nuisance entirely, would abate it. This was looked upon as a compromise and did not meet with the approval of the directors, as it would, in their opinion, put a stop to the movement for the complete removal of all the rendering works. After considerable discussion a resolution was drawn and unanimously adopted by the meeting. The resolution is as follows:

"Resolved. That we tender our sincere thanks to the Board of Health for the earnest efforts they are making to eradicate the Lowell nuisances, and we entreat them not to consent to any compromise or arrangement short of the complete extinction of the nuisance.

"Resolved, That while filling in low ground and sewering may mitigate the evil, we do not believe that it will effectually eradicate it, and we therefore most earnestly appeal to the board to make no compromise that will tolerate the minimizing of this nuisance."

The Secretary was directed to furnish the Board of Health with a copy of the resolution so that it could be read at the next meeting of that body.

Mr. Isaac H. Sturgeon, one of the directors, said this morning: "We want it definitely understood that we will keep up the fight on the nuisances until they are removed. We do not intend to compromise the matter in any way whatever."

HIS MILITARY CAREER.

Baron Falkenberg entered the army of the King of Sweden and Norway at a tender age, and served for about twelve years, finally accepting a commission in the Danish army and going through the campaign of 1862 against Prussia. His experiences in the army were those of other warlike young noblemen. Upon the restoration of peace he went to Italy (and finally cast his fortune with the ill-starred Maximilian) and was one of that Prince's staff in Mexico, escaping to Cuba after the disaster and downfall of the Emperor. He had a very close call from sharing the fate of Maximilian (and lost no time in reaching the United Stafes. NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Broker Abraham Backer, who recently assigned for the benefit of his creditors, was arrested at noon to-day on a warrant sworn out by Wm. D. Hardin, Presiding Justice of the City Court of Savannah, Ga., who charges him with defrauding him of Debenture bonds of the Central Railroad and Banking Co. of Georgia, valued at $9,700, and other certificates valued at $2,200. Backer was brought to the Tombs Police Court.

Jourt.
Judge Harden says that he gave Backer his acte for $10,000 with collateral worth $11,000.
Backer had the note discounted and when lue vesterday Harden called at the bank and due yesterday Harden called at the bank and paid it. He showed the cancelled note to Backer and demanded his collateral but found that Backer had used the collateral to settle a debt of his own. Hence the arrest. Backer operated heavily as a note broker. Two weeks ago he made an assignment, and upon investigating his affairs it was found that his liabilities would reach $4,000,000. Some of his creditors threatened to cause Backer's arrest and criminal prosecution, they alleging that his methods were not legitimate and that he used his customers' funds and collaterals to pay his own debts.

LOVE AND OPERA.

Misses Julia and Alice Bailey Surprise Their Parents and Friends.

SOMANTIC SEQUEL TO THEIR STUDIES FOR AMATEUR OPERA.

The Young Ladies Run Away From Hom and Join a Traveling Company-One of Them Marries the Manager, and the Other Becomes the Wife of the Leading

Two stage-struck girls, the Misses Julia

Since their departures the story of the fo mance has come to light. It seems that early in the month of July an opera comearly in the month of July an opera company was organized in St. Louis by an Englishman named W. R. Williams, who, it is said came to this city well provided with proper references. Among those whose services he succeeded in enlisting in the enterprise were the Bailey sisters, both of whom had long since cherished ambition to shine as stage stars. The girls possessed the qualifications of excellent performers, and had so often been seen in local opera and amateur theatricals that they had no difficulty in securing an engagement.

"THE DEEF LAID SCHEME."

Well knowing that their careful parents would balk their designs should they obtain the least inkling into the true nature of the embarkment, the story was told that Prof.

the least inking into the true nature of the embarkment, the story was told that Prof. Williams had been recommended by their music teacher, Mrs. Heinsohn, in whom they well knew the parents placed implicit confidence. Even then they did not dare reveal that the enterprise was that of traveling opera and theatricals, but insisted that they were joining a class which was to receive instructions in voice-culture at the suave professor's hands. In order to gain a clear start and da-filled quiver at his back, proceeded to get in his work with a vengeance. He lost no time in securing an early consummation of his schemes, either, for, as it developes, so well did he aim his darts that in less than two weeks he played sad havoc with two pairs of hearts. As a result, on Aug. 5 the manager of the company, suave Prof. Thomas W. R. Williams, accomsuave Prof. Thomas W. R. Williams, accompanied the younger daughter, Miss Julia, to the residence of a minister at Flora, Ill., and made the vows which gave him the privilege to discipline her at home as well as at rehearsal. Inspired by the action of his superior, the handsome tenor, Mr. Harry B. Morgan two days later emulated the example which had been set and celebrated the arrival of the troupe at Newton, Ill., by taking unto himself the willing superior tenor voice.

The news fell like a thunderbolt in the usually quiet home, and for a few hours Mr. Bailey was well nigh frantic with rage. As soon as he regained his composure he set about locating the runaways, and on the afternoon of the same day started out on the chase accompanied by his grief-stricket, wife.

THE PHYSICAL CULTURE LADIES PRAC-TICING ARCHERY AND VAULTING.

Games—Gossip.

The fad for "physical culture" is developing its fruits, and the girls with well-developed muscles are meeting the men upon their own fields and vanquishing them sometimes, if we may believe all we hear from the summer resorts. The old fogles who think that the girls will be poked aside to play dominoes and checkers and roll ten pins and play croquet and lawn tennis are mistaken. Croquet had its day and gare way to tennis, which in turn is waning, swimming and boating came next, and they are still holding their own, but the newest fads of all are archery and vaulting. Both may be pretty and graceful, but they are very English. Vaulting is rather risky for the dear creatures, but they will try it all the same.

Archery is calculated to display a pretty hand, wrist and arm, and admits of lovely posings. Instead of dominoes and checkers, the girls play poker and progressive euclire

A "Writers' Club," which has increased largely in membership, met last Monday at the residence of Mrs. Joseph Specht on West Pine street. During the evening several new names were entered on the list of members, and a number of plans pertaining to the success of the club introduced. Mr. A. H. st. Clair read an original paper on "How a Newspaper Man Won a Wife," which was well received. A Committee on Entertainment was appointed to receive several distinguished guests, who will be entertained by "The Writers' Club" during the Exposition. Among the honored guests will be Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Miss Minnie Gilmore and a number of literary celebrities from different cities. These noted people will be received first at the exhibit in the Exposition, a pretty spot which will be appropriately decorated for each occasion and each guest. Arrangements were also made for the reception of different local literary celebrities, as also for a "Newspaper Night," when the members of the different st. Louis papers will be entertained. Already the exhibit'is nearly completed and will be found to be one of the most attractive places at the Exposition. All the St. Louis authors will show their books and each of the daily and weekly papers will be represented.

THE "ZOO" QUESTION.

The Fair Association directors who se romptly volunteered the assurance that the Zoo animals would be donated to the city for Forest Park were evidently mindful of the fact that the Fair Ground, with all its improvements and appurtenances, is the product of manifold favors bestowed by the city government, free advertising bestowed by the city papers and the liberal patronage and support of the St. Louis public through a long series of years.

As a means of cultivating a continuance of the public favor by which the Fair Association has been so long sustained, the donation to the city of animals which the Fair Association could not afford to keep was a good way of warming the public heart toward the new management, which succeeds a rather unpopular one.

But it seems that the directors who proanimals will be worth more to it than the local good will it will forfeit by having the animals sold away from St. Louis or "run Guarantees to Advertisers a Larger Local up" on her bidders.

They have been heard from once since their departure for the dangerous work of Alaskan exploration, and their letters received a year agolgave an exceedingly graphic account of the hardships and adventures encountered in the first taste of life in an Alaskan camp. Dr. A. H. their first thought on the subject was the best, and that they will soon find it so, if Kingsbury, in which they continue the ac-count of life at "Camp Davidson." These latest letters are full of interesting details oncerning the expedition, and also give ome new information touching upon the resome new information touching upon the re-cent discoveries of gold in Alaska. The almost complete isolation from the world of the two young St. Louisans is indicated by the fact that the letters received by Dr. Ohmann-Dumesnii this week were written just one year ago. By an unlucky accident on the Yukon River they missed the yearly mail-boat bound for St. Michael's, and so have laid awaiting the "next mail," twelve months later.

The three "Fleming boys," as they are known, were released from the calaboose this morning on bond of $800 each, furnished in the holdover at the Four Courts. He escaped with a few scalp wounds and bruises in his side caused by the be out he will swear to information for a brothers, John, William and James, with assault to kill.

brothers, John, William and James, with assault to kill.

The Fiemings were not arrested until late last evening, when the nature of Hill's injuries appeared to be serious. Though bond was offered for them last night by Jim Cronin with Ed Butler as security it was not accepted, as Capt. Young had been told the injuries sustained by Hill might prove fatal. This morning the three brothers were handcuffed and carted through the streets in the patrol wagon, to Officer Hill's room at 1017 Morgan street for identification. Hill had recovered sufficiently to sit up in bed. He identified the three men as the parties who assaulted him and they were again locked up. When it was seen that Officer Hill was not fatally injured. Capt. Young accepted the bond of Ed Butler and released the prisoners. They felt greatly humiliated by their ride through the city in irons.

The trouble threatened to result in some rather peculiar complications in the affairs of the city government. John C. Fleming, who is a member of the City Democratic Central Committee, is also a supervisor of sprinkling in the Street Department. The Street Department being informed this morning that Fleming was in prison immediately set abaut hunting for a man to look after his sprinkling district, which he will not relinquish until Saturday, when he is expected to take hold of his new Job as Distriet Superintendent of Streets to which he was appointed by Maj. Murphy yesterday after the assault upon the police officers. As it was found this morning that Officer Hill was not as seriously injured as was at first supposed, and that Fleming is out, the wheels of the city government can turn again with their customary smoothness.

The Planters' House robbery has assume are now seven persons implicated in the systematic stealing which was carried on for three weeks past. About $1,000 worth of champagnes, fine liquors, wines and fancy groceries, a part of the Nicholson Grocer. Co.'s stock stored in the jold hotel after the fire, was carried off by the parties under arrest, as they have admitted. This morning Chief of Detectives Desmond This morning Chief of Detectives Desmond secured warrants against Billy Hennessy, Edward Murphy, Thomas Gleason, John Gallagher, Thomas Howe, John Mayer and Charles Wicks. Four charges of receiving stolen property were made against Hennessy and Murphy who took the wine and goods from Private Watchmen Gleason and Gallagher. Three charges of grand larceny were made against Gallagher and Gleason for stealing the wine. Thomas Howe, a member of the Salvage Corps; John Mayer, a private watchman and Charles Wicks, a salcon keeper at Twelfth and Pine streets, were charged with receiving stolen property, in buying or accepting the wine from Murphy and Hennessey. The men are still in the lockup.

Charles Beener, the colored barber, against whom several complaints regarding alleged extertionate charges have been made of late, extertionate charges have been made of late, claims that he is being persecuted by runners and hackmen because he refuses to permit them to make a loafing place of his shop opposite the Union Depot. In denial of the charges of extortion he produces a scale of his price and also establishes that the traveler Samuel Beachy, who claimed yesterday to have lost a railroad ticket while in the barber-shop, and at whose instigation Beener was arrested, found the missing ticket in his own pocket.

Into the Arms of the Law. James Handley was seen taking a watch chain from a room of Mrs. Kate Brown's resnoon. She raised a cry which caused a crowd to assemble and chase Handley. He ran down the street into the arms of Officer Sears, who arrested him. A warrant charging him with petit larceny has been issued.

They Confidenced Her. Three young boys called on Mrs. Joseph Muench of 808 Gratiot street yesterday after Muench of sus Gratiot street yesterday after-noon to sell her some chicken feed they car-ried in a sack. While she was bargaining with one of the boys the others entered the house and stole her purse containing $1.50, a gold watch and a gold tooth-pick. The boys made their escape.

Used a Board. Jacob Betzer of Hickory street and Jefferson avenue was arrested on Grand and Theresa avenues yesterday for beating his A Grocery Burglarised.

While patrolling their beat at 12:30 o'clock saw four young men dash out of Tim Sull van's grocery store, 2000 Cass avenue and run down Twenty-second street. Four shots fired n their direction failed to halt them and they escaped. On returning to the store it was found that the front door had been forced open and the cash drawer robbed and several dollars stolen.

BOUND TRIP ONE PARE.

Low Rates for Odd Fellows to Their Sovereign Grand Lodge.

As the time draws near for the convening of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the lide-pendent Order of Odd Fellows in this city, commencing Sept. 21, arrangements for bringing delegates of the order here from all sections of the world at low rates of fare are being perfected in a way which indicates an attendance upon the Grand Lodge of at least 100,000 members. Local committees are very busy making arrangements for housing and entertaining this vast assemblage of people who will be added to the other throngs who will be attracted to St. Louis during the fall festivities.

To-day W. H. Woodward, President of the Transportation Committee, announced that he had made arrangements with all the rail reads centering at this point to transport all members of the order wishing to visit St. Louis upon this occasion for one fare for the round trip as far west as Ogden and Salt Lake, good to return as late as Sept. 28.

ESTY WOODS' MONSTER. A Snake in Ohio as Big as a Stovepipe

New Baltimore, O., Aug. 18.—The people living in the vicinity of the great timber tract just south of here, called Esty Woods, are in a state of terror. A few days ago a gang of men working in the timber was startled by a loud, hissing noise, comething library and the startled by a loud, hissing noise, comething library and the startled by a loud, hissing noise, comething library and the startled by a loud, hissing noise, comething library and the startled by a loud, hissing noise, and his large something like escaping steam. On looking into a ravine from whence the sound seemed to proceed they were horrified to see before them, not twenty feet away, a monster serpent with head erect and probably seven feet above the ground. Its eyes seemed to fash fire and it kept its head in a swaying motion. The men fied, and their story soon gained wide circulation among the farmers. A large party was organised and a search for the monster began. The expedition was armed with pitchforks, shotoguns and such weapons as could be gathered in the neighborhood. Arriving on the ground, the reptile was found wrapped around the body of a tree, its head out on a limb, and a portion of the body swinging near the ground. When it caught the sound of its would-be slayers it threw itself to the ground and was soon lost under the brushes. As no one cared to follow it in its rough course, all agreed to give up the chase. As near as can be ascertained this monster measured sixteen or eighteen feet in length and as large as a stope-pipe. Work in the woods has been abandoned. The snake is supposed to be a boa-constrictor escaped from some menagerie. SNAKE BITTEN IN A CEMETER

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 18.—Rev. Eri Liv-ingston, living near Conway, while putting up a tombstone over the grave of his wife in the cemetery was bitten in the hand by a rattle snake. In a few hours the hand and arm swelled to twice its normal size. His life is dispaired of.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 13 .- Cases o now as they were a few years ago, but the case of a man named Carpenter in Mendocino case of a man named Carpenter in Mendocino County is unusual even in this class of surgical operations. Twenty-four square inches of skin was taken from one of his legs and transferred to the other to cover a wound received by the upsetting of a stage coach, in which the flesh was denuded of its cutticle. The wound was carefully sponged and bits of skin applied and covered with wet cloths. After twenty-four hours those pieces which showed slightly blue or "cobwebby" adhered, while others would drop off. The pieces applied were obtained by raising the skin upon the other leg with small nippers and passing a small knife under them, just deep enough to start the blood. More than sixty pieces were applied, the majority adhering. Day by day they stretched out until, meeting each other, they soon separated the wound into three parts, and finally covered it altogether in two months. No medicine was used, only water.

THE CLOSED SEASON.

War Vessels Warning and Chasing Out SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 13.-The Examin er's Ounalaska correspondent, under date of Aug. 7, writes that during a cruise in the had seen and warned one sealer, another vessel five, the United States steamer Mohican five, the Thetis two and the Alert two. Many of these had to be fired on to make them halt and only one schooner succeeded in running away. As about fifty schooners have received warning the next cruise of the war ships will result more seriously to poachers if caught in Behring Sea. The Thetis was to sail at the date of writing, and will be followed by the others in rapid succession. The Behring Sea Commissioners arrived July 24, and are proceeding with the investigation. The Americans will return as soon as possible, but the British seem to be in no hurry. H. M. S. Porpoise has arrived from the China station, and each nation now has three war ships here, in addition to the United States cutters. So far the cutters have taken all prizes. On July 28 the Corwin ordered the sealing schooner Ethel of San Diego to leave Behring Sea, and her captain promised to do so. A few minutes after, however, three rifle shots were heard on the Ethel and a boat from the Corwin pulled over to her through the fog. The sealing boat was found in the water and on this evidence the schooner was selzed. Her Captain claims that one of the crew was firing at a bottle in the water and that his schooner was too small to take the small boat on board. The Ethel was brought to Ounalaska and her crev! no we now in the custody.

THE MOHICAN'S MISHAP.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—Officers of the United States steamer Mohican writing from Ounglaska, Aug. 1, says that the Mohican early ran on to the rocks at St. George Island during a fog. The ship was going at full speed when breakers were seen ahead. The engines were reversed and the vessel's bow missed the rocks by about ten feet. The cutter Rush picked up seven men in a whale-boat from the whaler Triton. They had been lost in the fog and drifted around ten days before being picked up. They were in a terrible condition when found, one having gone mad and four others are not expected to survive. Nearly all the sealers have been notified to leave the Behring Sea and have compiled with the order.

THE STOCK MARKET.

The Tone Decidedly Stronger-Decrease in Bank of England Bullion.

By Private Wire to Gaylord, Blessing & Co. NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—It was quite the general expectation in Stock Exchange circles last evening that the market would be stronger and further advanced to-day. This stronger and further advanced to day. This is the sentiment generally prevailing, not withstanding the partial re-action which set is just at the close of the day. The brokerage fraternity, as a body, are much encouraged and pleased at the noted increase in dealings yesterday. Union Pacific, gave the impetus to the market and this was admitted it looks as if George Gould had covered up his shorts in Union Pacific and had gone long. A prominent member of the Stock Exchange, who helped the raily and improvement in Union Pacific very much yesterday, remarked that the present bears on 35 consist of the same parties who were carrying Chicago, Burlington & Quincy not a great while ago at 80 and were talking 80. The net exprings of the Eric Railway for the month of July are estimated by king as equal to an increase of $150,000. The annual reports of the Northwest show a surplus, including land sales, of $719,837. Think stock market will sell higher to-day. The bullion in the Bank of England decreased this week £73,000; reserve increased £288,000.

SHOWERS OF METEORITES. What Those on Board the Steamer Pathan

New York, Aug. is,—The steamship Pathan. Capt. Joy, of the Mogul Line, arrived here yesterday, having on board 988 tons of tea, the first of this season's crop to arrive here. The Pathan left Kobe, Japan, on May 27, and after loading at Hang Kow and Shanghai started for this port. In the Indian Ocean she experienced heavy shouthwest monsoons, and nightly since July 26 has seen large abowers of meteorites, or falling stars. These were particularly beautiful on Aug. 8 and 9, when the stars seemed to fall in showers. Some of the meteors seemed larger than Jupiter and lighted the ship up as if she was under a search light. These larger meteors left a long trail behind them which lasted for some seconds. The showers seemed to come from the direction of the constellation Ursa Major, or the Great Bear. On Aug. 1, while in the Atlantic, the vessel ran into an electric storm and the St. Elmo's light played all over the shrouds, masts and vessel. New York, Aug. 13.—The steamship Pathar

THE LUMBERMEN.

Second Day of the Southern Association's Convention.

LETTER FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT OF

The World's Fair and the Lumbermen-"Post-Dispatch" Excursion-Banquet at Germania Club Hall To-Night-The Proceedings of the Convention-Com-

The bronsed visitors from the Southern pineries began their second day's proceedings this morning. The delegates gathered in the board room of the Polytechnic Building, thoroughly refreshed and highly pleased with the river excursion tendered them by the Post-Dispatch last evening. Over 300 of bated the important question of grove and tongue lengths.

Capt. J. B. White called the convention to order at 10:45. The President added to the Committee on Resolutions the representatives of the lumber journals present. They are E. H. Defebough and J. E. Defebough of the Timberman, E. C. Chandler and Leonard Bronson of the Northwestern Lumberman, J. Newton Nind of the Mississippi Valley Lumberman, and W. E. Barnes, St. Louis Lumberman, The Secretary read the report of the Committee on the World's Fair which was appointed last year at New Orleans. The committee reported that after consulting with the World's Fair Columbian Commission, it found it impossible to obtain a building for an exhibition on account of the lack of room. The committee suggested, however, that an arrangement be made with the Chief of the Forestry Division to group the exhibits of the Southarn Impher States and have an associa-arrangement be made with the Chief of the Forestry Division to group the exhibits of the Southern lumber States and have an association headquarters in the center.

Mr. White took occasion to remark that the Southern lumbermen did not take sufficient interest in their business, and he enlarged upon the absence of census schedules for the Southern lumber industries.

Southern lumber industries.

LETTER FROM FORTER.

A letter was then read from Census Superintendent Robt. P. Porter, in which the writer said that no schedules were issued because the lumbermen did not forward data sufficient to get up one. He stated that only 1,644 returns were made by Southern manufacturers, and at least 8,001 were needed to prepare a bulletin. He added, however, that with a new appropriation and the help of the lumbermen, he would prepare a schedule.

The President referred the letter to a special committee, composed of E. T. Skinner, George Lock, S. Lacy, George Gottshall, these gentlemen all being on the World's Fair Committee.

The reports of the Auditing and Finance Committees were then read. The Auditing ing, which the convention thought a good joke.

The Finance Committee reported receipts to the amount $1,837.55 and expenditures $1,910.99, leaving a balance of $28.56.

The Committee on Constitution and By-laws suggested several amendments. They were not adopted, but were made a special order for $p. m. to-day.

The President stated that a request was made for permission to display samples of betting and mill materials in the meeting. Vice-President Lacy opposed it, and the permission was refused. A further request from Prof. Zephers to read a paper on "Dry Klins" elicited a motion from the Vice-President to exclude all outside matters until the business was completed. The motion was carried.

An invitation was then read from Prof. J.

An invitation was then read from Prof. J.

B. Johnson of the Washington University to visit the jesting machine experiments.

The invitation was accepted for chair then appointed as a committee on localition of the next convention: G. S. Lacy, A. J., Neimeyer, C. J. Banks, Dr. Brooks, J. H. Hinton, B. Coe, E. T. Skinner, C. Bunker and George Gatshall. A Committee on Cypress was appointed to consist of T. Vollmer, F. P. Hearn and W. B. Norris.

There were no more committee reports ready and the convention adjourned at 11:45 until 2 o'clock.

ready and the convention adjourned at it: suntil 2 o'clock.

BANQUET TO-NIGHT.

The delegates will be banqueted to-night at Germania Hall and a very artistic mean card has been prepared for the occasion. On the front cover is a large pine tree in the foreground with men at the foot of it hewing it to the ground. A mighty forest primeval looms up in the background and over all is a very pretty arrangement of champaign bottles. To the left of the tree is engraved "Banquet given in honor of the Southern Lumber Manufacturers' Association, Germania Hall, St. Louis, Aug. 13, '91,'' The inside of the front cover is vacant, and the opposite page contains the fine menu. On the back is a very pretty vingette representative of a buzzing saw-mill. The speakers of the evening and the toasts are: J. B. White, "The Association;" R. A. Long, "Merchandising Lumber;" W. E. Ramsay, "The Yellow Pine Interests of Louisiana;" J.J. White, "The Yellow Pine Interests of Mississippi;" George M. Gotshall, "The Yellow Pine Interests of Mississippi;" George M. Gotshall, "The Yellow Pine Interests of Mississippi;" George M. Gotshall, "The Yellow Pine Interests of Mississippi;" George M. Gotshall, "The Yellow Pine Interests of Mississippi;" has President of the St. Louis Lumber Exchange, is the toast-master of the occasion, and he will fill that delicate position with his accustomed elegance and tact.

Sheriff Staed entered the cell and read the death warrant. A bottle of whisky was then placed to the unfortunate's lips and he drank freely of the flery stuff. The word was given freely of the flery stuff. The word was given to march, but Henson was stubborn and ordered the guards to keep away. Sheriff Staed quickly grasped him by the right arm and, assisted by two deputies, dragged the struggling Dane across the floor. At the gate leading to the yard, Henson failtered as the black scaffold loomed up in all its ghastly prominence, but was pushed over the threshold and went staggering down the steep incline. The doomed wretch gazed at the large crowd which had, by various mathelarge crowd

He seemed surprised on seeing so many people assmbled to witness his death. Across the staging and up the four steps he walked without any show of weakness or loss of nerve. Bob Humphreys, the hangman, stood on the trap ready to receive him, and when Henson halted at the top of the stairs on the platform he motioned him to stand on the box in the center of the trap. Henson stepped forward, but did not mount the box. Henson faced the crowd. His eyes were sunken and dark rings appeared under them, He was under a great nervous strain.

Not the slightest pulsation was felt after the drop, and Dr. Steinmetz declared it a case of instantaneous death. Ten minutes later the body was carried into the Morgue where an autopsy was held by Drs. Steinmetz and Brennan. The vertebrae and the spinal cord were found to be broken and from the condition of the organs it was seen that there had been no suffering or contraction of the muscles to indicate agony before death. The Coroner took charge of the remains and unless some one appears to, claim the body it will be buried to-morrow by the city in the Potter's Field. The ster-Son's hevenge. The execution was witnessed throughout by 16-year-old Gus Kreitling, a step-son of the condemned man, and the only sye-witness to his mother's murder. It was the testimony of this boy which sent Henson to the trap, and the condemned man had requested that he be not permitted to be present at his death. CANADA'S HUMILIATION.

The Langevin Revelations a Blot Upon the People of the Dominion.

TREAL, Aug. 13.-The Canadian Gar torial entitled "Canada's Humilia-plauds Sir Hector Langevin's action in a editorial shift between the capital seat in the Cabinet, but regrets that he had not resigned before, as he would thus have avoided much suspicion. His resignation at the present time, it says, is more forced than voluntarily. The article also says that enough scandals have been proved to make. Canada a by-word among civilized people. It urges the Dominion Government to leave no stone unturned to bring the offenders to justice.

Referring to the comments of the London newspapers on the recent revelations, the Gazette says it is true that "a more humiliating spectacle of official corruption has never defense individual officials and politicians may make in the United States, it is abundantly clear that the cancer of corruption has eaten deep into Canadian institutions. Political life in the United States is not particularly pure, but we would be exceedingly surprised if the Canadian record could be beaten."

The Star publishes the following special surprised if the Canadian record could be beaten."

The Star publishes the following special cable dispatch from London last night: Sir Hector Langevin's resignation of his portfelio in the Dominion cabinet as Minister of Public Works is the subject of much comment, not only by the press, but in political and colonial circles generally. The Chronicle refers to Sir Hector Langevin's standing in Canadian politics and his past record and hopes that he will be able to clear himself from the charge preferred against him, but it says that it cannot longer doubt that the whole system of public works in Canada reeks with wasterliness and corruption. The article concludes by saying that only by bringing the offenders to justice can the Dominion Government avert political catastrophes beside which the death of the Prime Minister. Sir John Macdonald, is of small moment. The Latertiser also strongly condemns the corruption existing at Ottawa. The Pall Mall Gazette says that Sir Hector Langevin has done the straight thing in resigning his portfolio, and hopes that he will succeed in proving that his hands are clean.

NEGRO EMIGRATION TO LIBERIA. Ex-United States Senator Bruce Oppose the Scheme.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13 .- Ex-Senato Bruce of Mississippi opposes the schemes of negro emigration to Liberia, and says Bishor Turner is the only prominent colored man in this country who advocates it. Mr. Bruce says the American negroes are Americans. They are African in nothing but their color and there is no more reason why they should return to the land of their ancestors than there is for the Germans or Irish or Swedes returning to Europe.

Secretary Munson Arrives With the Browns' New Men.

HOW HE SLIPPED THE PLAYERS OUT OF MINNEAPOLIS.

Them Under the Ten-Day Rule-Mr. Von Der Ahe Says Louisville Wil Sporting News of All Kinds.

Secretary George E. Munson of the Brown arrived in St. Louis this morning. All re-ports to the contrary notwithstanding, Mr. ger and McQuaid, players recently released by the Minneapolis Western Association club and signed by the Browns' representative for the remainder of the season's play,
Mr. Munson went to Minneapolis last Tues day, arriving in that city about 8 o'clock in and was met at the depot by the catcher.

Through Darling's aid, Rettger and McQuaid were at once located and before Munson had been off the train two hours the signatures of been off the train two hours the signatures of the three players had been obtained to St. Louis contracts. Ward, the second-baseman, was also wanted, but could not be found.

The players were got out of Minneapolis by a neat bit of strategy. They had on Monday morning been informed by the management of the club that they were free to go where they pleased, and in consequence their signing with St. Louis was legitimate. As soon as the directors learned, however, that representatives of St. Louis, Chicago and Pittsburg teams were in the city endeavoring to sign the released players, messengers were sent out and notice of the enforcement of the ten day limit rule was served on those of the players who could be found. The rule in such cases is that the management after releasing a player can found. The rule in such cases is that the management after releasing a player can hold him for ten days by giving him proper notice. Darling, Rettger and McQuaid had not been given such notice and secretary Munson was determined that no papers of any kind should be served upon them. Knowing that the Minneapolis depots and other local avenues of escape were guarded by representatives of the directors, carriages were called and the quartette took a rapid departure to St. Paul. A stop was made in the latter city until the following morning, when the St. Louis train was boarded without interference.

Darling, who has caught in the Chicago club for several years, was offered big money to go back to the Chicago team as Anson badly needs a good catcher. He preferred to play with Comiskey however, and upon his recommendation and of that of several other players of the Minneapolis club, Pitcher George Rettger was signed. He has been with Minneapolis only a short time, but his work has been of such an exceptionally high character that as soon as the announcement of the club's disbandonment was made, he had received offers from several Le ague and Association Clubs. He had never signed a contract with Minneapolis, and was free to sign where he pleased. Darling advised him to come to St. The Downward Career of Arthur Allen Digby Marsh.

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 13.—Arthur Allen
Digby Marsh, second son of Brig.-Gen.
Marsh of the Queen's forces in Ireland, is in jail here for the third time, but he will be punished for the first time to-day. He has sunk to the lowest depths, and was arrested Telly's Cincinnatis.

MR. VON DER AHE RETURNS.

President Von der Ahe returned from Louis ville this morning where he went to learn the exact standing of the Louisville Club's financial condition. He stated that the Louisville will stick the season out, and that the club will not sell out to Milwaukee or any other city. He stated further that the league people want a compromise badly and John T. Brush's visit here the other day was to try to effect one with the Association. Mr. Von der Ahe reterated the Association stand on the subject and told Brush that the only agreement the Association would make with the League was for an interchange of games in the fall and respecting each other's contracts. Mr. Von der Ahe claims the interview came to naught, as Brush wanted the Association to vacate cincinnati, but nevertheless, it is believed here that there will be a compromise, and that, too, before long. THE CINCINNATI GAMES.

Mike Kelly's Cincinnatis will play the Browns their last series of championship games in St. Louis Saturday, Sunday and Tuesday at Sportsman's Park. The Brown's new men, Dell Darling, George Retter and Martin McQuaid' will make their appearance with the team. They are a trio of hustlers and will no doubt strengthen the Browns. PROVIDENCE GOES UNDER.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 18.—The Providence Base Ball Club will probably have to go under. Manager Cheney received a tele gram from President White of the Easter Association last night annou-

League could not provide funds to meet the pay roll of the club. The players may decide to club together on the co-operative plan, but this is hardly probable. With any energy whatever in them the Washingtons might have won yesterday's game. Several times they had men on base, but in one case only were they able to bring them in. At other times McGill was hit hard.

The visitors, especially their first baseman McAuley, put up a very weary game of ball and do not seem to care much whether they win or loose. Alvord's work on third was one of the redeeming features. He gave a splendid exhibition of ball playing, and also batted hard. McGuire played well and Dowd and Sutcliffe did excellently. The Browns all batted hard and clean, especially Hoy, Boyle and McCarthy; the latter's field work was splendid.

Hoy, Boyle and McCarthy; the latter's field work was spiendid.

The summary was as follows: Browns, 7; Washingtons, 5. Base hits—Browns, 12; Washington, 7. Errors—Browns, 4; Washington, 2. Batteries—Browns, McGill and Boyle; Washington, Carsey and Sutcliffe.

At Cincinnati: Cincinnati, 7; Boston, 0. Errors—Cincinnati, 12; Boston, 0. Manager Shannon was a suffers out West and should make his men take more interest in the game than they do. Outside of McGuire, Aivord and Dowd the team played like a set of amateurs. McAuley, who attempts to cover first base, should be let go immediately. He is no good whatever. A bad missake was made in letting McQueery go for such a man.
Alvord, Washington's crack third baseman, is a St. Louis boy. He has been playing great ball this season. He is considered one of the best on the diamond to-day. He was with the old League team in this city. After it disbanded he disappeared and was not heard of again until he appeared with the Toledo Association team last season. From there he was transferred to Washington.

A number of noted cripples will soon return to racing, the most prominent cases being Senorita and Fitzjames, both of whom are doing moderate work. The Morris Park track will be remodeled at the hill before next season. So many horses find the descent into the home stretch hard on their feet and legs that an effort is to be made to cut down the hill at the objectionable point, which will shorten the circumference of the track.

The Western crack, Guido, is proving one of the phenomenal performers of the year. He has twice beaten the crack Hingham at St. Paul, and lowered the track record for a mile to 1:40s. The Ancient Town of Windsor, Conn.,

DISPUTE RETWEEN THE VILLAGE ORA-CLE AND THE VILLAGE BARBER.

Oracle, Starts a Political Discussion With Riwin Dibble, the Barber-The Latter Gets Mad and Lets the Oracle Go Home Half Shaved.

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 13 .- Not since the nearly one hundred years ago, has the an nearly one hundred years ago, has the an clent town of Windsor been so excited as it is at present. Windsor is six miles borth of Hartford and one of the three oldest towns of Connecticut. The excitement is caused by a threatened suit for breach of contract brought by Elijah Havens, the village oracle, ber. Dibble runs a one-chair shop nea the mill at Poquonneck, a hamlet within the town, and Havens gets shaved regularly every week, usually on Saturday afternoon when he has seven days' hirsute growth re moved by the razor that has done similar duty for the Ellsworths, the Marshalls, the Websters and the Sills of by gone days Havens, besides being the village oracle, is the blackest Republican to be found in Hartford County, while no stancher Dem lives in the State than Dibble, the barber, For years the two have indulged in political dis-putes, but never until last Saturday have putes, but never anni mat caturday have they resulted in anything more serious than a half-hour estrangement. But last Saturday the debate was particularly spirited, and as a consequence the whole town is divided, and the outcome is watched with intense interest.

the outcome is watched with intense interest, not only by the good folks of Windsor, but by every farmer for miles around.

How if HAPPENED.

It happened thus: Last Saturday afternoon Havens dropped into Dibble's shop to be shaved, as is his wont. Havens is a Blaine. be shaved, as is his wont. Havens is a Blaine man, also a Bulkeley man. Dibble hates Blaine and despises Bulkeley. The usual number of village loafers were about the shop, and Havens, as he dropped into the red plush of a barber's chair, undoubtedly thought he saw the chance of impressing upon the idlers a sense of his acute political wisdom.

"I tell you, Dibble," he began, "we've got a Governor who looks after us. When a Democratic Senate won't make any appropriations he goes down in his own pocket and pays for the running of the State himself."

"Goes down in the pocket of the insurance company he's President of, you mean," responded Dibble.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 13.—All the talk about a movement to take place in October, when 200 women, many of them well-known in Roston society, would appear upon the streets in kilted suits, seems to have had its birth in a very small fire of fact. The originator of the idea, Mrs. Margaret Shaw Ingersoll, who lives an Configuration of the idea, Mrs. Margaret Shaw Ingersoll, who sponded Dibble.

"Darned buncombe, I say, and we'll show him what we think of him when we get to the polls. A pretty mess we have of it. Makes the Lagislature keep elected men out of office so he can stay in himself. Then he sends the toy soldiers down to camp for eight days instead of six and makes the State pay $15,000 arter for it. Wait till the farmers get after be that as it may, he flared up and as he did so, down came the lather brush on Havens' cheek with a soft and mellow sputter. Then the tun began in earnest, no one seems to know just how. The barber had removed the seven days' beard from the right side of the oracle's face, but hard and brittle hair dark as an hour!'s tresses remained on the left cheek. As Havens called Dibble a — fool and Dibble retaliated by spattering lather all ver the face of Havens, the latter sat bol upright in his chair, and, if the witnesses are to be believed, called Dibble a very harsh name indeed.

"Not until you've finished shaving me." thundered back Havens.

"By —, you will," said the barber.
"By —, I won't" replied the oracle.
"Then you'll sit there all day, for I won't ome near your brazen face," said the bar

The idlers were all excitement. For years they had been familiar with the daily Havens-Dibbie debates, but this was some-minutes heiter moves up again.

"Come, are you going to finish this shave?"
he inquired.
"No," retorted Dibble.
"Then I'll make you sweat for it," said Havens, as, slowly, he arose from his seat, put on his coat and hat, rubbed some of the lather from his face and left the shop with smooth right cheek and bristling left.

Dibble was the village hero that night. Last night the tables were partly turned, for on Monday Havens came to Hartford and onsulted a lawyer.

"You can sue him for breach of contract," said the attorney. "When you seated your-self in the chair and he began to shave you, he entered upon an implied, but none the less legal contract to complete the job. His fail-ure to do so caused you the humiliation of appearing on the streets only half shaved. You are certainly entitled to damages." Mr. Havens agreed with the lawyer and instructed him to draw up the papers, alleging 200 damages. There is not to-day a person in Windsor "on the fence." Every one is either a Havens man or a Dibbie man. As Windsor is a Republican town, the Havenites are slightly more numerous than the Dibblettes.

PALENVILLE, N. Y., Aug. 13.-Herbert C. omstock, who claims to be a brother of Anthony Comstock, and George Miller, a youth whose chief aim seems to be to sow wild oats and have a good time, have been stopping at the Fisher House at Kiskatom, a hamlet on ungen days to our own, filling the gap in the the turnpike from Palenville to Catskill. me indeed.

with two variety actresses from New York City, has been such as to set the tongues of the gossips wagging, and the proprietor in timated that their departure would be hailed with delight. On Saturday they started for the mountains and must have fallen in with the mysterious characters that lured Rip Van Winkle to the rocky fastnesses and there profiered him the tempting flagon, for when they returned at sunset and were wending their way through the quiet town of Palenville, the riotous quartette were in a very maudlin condition. They discharged firearms recklessly, frightening teams and scaring timid women. Near the Kiskatom Post-office they met Arthur Pierson of Orange, who was walking by the roadside, and commanded him to halt. Mr. Pierson thought they were a party of summer boarders bent on having some fun, and when Herbert C. Comstock stepped forward and ordered Mr. Pierson to take a drink with the party out of a mysterious looking flask, Mr. Pierson good-naturedly begged to be excused. As Pierson was stepping aside to resume his stroll, Comstock drew a revolver and commanded him to throw up his hands. The joke became serious.

«Comstock, placing the pistol near Pierson's head, said: "See here, you city dude, if you don't take a good drink of whisky with us I'll blow out your brains quicker than you can say Jack Robinson."

Mr. Pierson glanced around and seeing no one in sight to come to his aid, very rejuctantly took the drink with the pistol pressed against his temple. After the bachanalians had accomplished their purpose they repaired to Kiskatom and painted the town.

Mr. Pierson procured a team of Dan Smith of Palenville and went to Catskill where he swore out a warrant for Herbert C. Comstock and George Miller for felonious assault. A constable proceeded at once to Kiskatom for the "highwaymen," but having been informed of their prospective arrest they field to the mountains where a correspondent found them in a most pitiable condition, living on such food as they could beg from house to house. MERCANTILE LIBRARY IN SUMMER.

Valuable Additions to the Stock of Books by Gift and Purchase. Through the generosity of Mr. Robert S. Brookings nearly five hundred volumes have been added to the Department of German of these are German classics, from Nibelold collection so that the library can now offer to students good editions of most of the works mentioned in the favorite his-tories of German literature. The other half is made up of representative fiction, poetry, dramatic literature and miscellaneous prose, published in Germany within the past ten

The English books added to the library during the summer include a considerable number of books of permanent value. The increase has been unexpectedly large and has been swelled by some valuable gifts. Among the latter may be mentioned as of particular interest to lawyers and physicians a volume on the Maybrick case, by A. W. Macdougall of Lincoln's Inn, presented by the Rev. J. P. T. Ingraham. A set of Duruy's History of Greece now stands beside the same author's History of Rome, forming together the best connected histories of antiquity in English. Important additions have been made to the department of chemistry, especially in its industrial applications, and more works of this character will soon be received.

As much money as can be spared for the purpose is spent in systematically building up first one department of the library, thea another. To bring the whole library up to the desired standard all at once would require the immediate expenditure of many thousands of dollars, but by taking one section at a time a great deal has already been done, the effects of which effort are cumulative, as additions to one department strengthen all those allied to it.

Work on the new catalogue is advancing swiftly and parts of it will be printed and ready for issue early in the winter.

General President Williams of the K. and L. of L. has issued an offer of $1 for every new member aided to the benefit fund in the next thirty days.

Unity Lodge, Knights and Ladies of Industry, is having some interesting meetings. To-night there will be three initiations, seven applications for memberahip having been received in the past few meetings.

peramp having been received in the past few meetings.

Flora and Unity Lodges of the Knights and Ladies of Industry are at work organizing a sick relief system which will include about a hundred memorithe plans will be explained to-night in Unity Lodge by Dr. Edward F. Bandall and others.

The lodges of the Knights and Ladies of Honor that are located north of Market street are making arrangements for a grand reunion and summer festival at Huber's Grove Bunday, Aug. 30. Mr. Otto Schoen and others will deliver addresses.

A number of the German lodges of the Knights and Ladies of Honor, it is reported, are working to secure the election of Otto Schoen as Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Missouri. They have a desire to have their native tongue more thoroughly represented in the Grand Lodge, and to that end they propose to sleet sweral Germans at the next convention of the Grand-Lodge.
